Commonweal Army.

Frye's Boys in Camp at El Paso Waiting for Transportation to San Antonio.

CHECKS COXEY RECEIVES.

The Army Can't Assemble at the Capitol—Strict Law in the Case.

EL PASO, Tex., March 23.—The first California regiment of the industrial army broke up their camp in the rear of the city hall this evening at 5 o'clock and marched to the junction of the Texas and Pacific and Southern Pacific railroads below the city, where the regiment again went into camp and expects to take a train over the Southern pacific to night for San Antonio.

Gen. Frye will leave here to night on the passenger train for San Antonio to arrive there in advance of the hungry regiment and make arrangements for their reception.

The men while here conducted themselves so well as to win the admiration of the entire population and they were well provided with extra rations. They expect to reach San Antonio next Monday.

MAY NOT GET OFF

El Paso, Tex, March 23—The industrial army people, 1000 strong, are "laying" for the first east bound freight train out of El Paso. The Southern Pacific has abandoned east-bound freight trains for the present and it is understood that the Texas and Pacific has done the same, at any rate no empty freight cars will be carried out of El Paso by the Texas and Pacific. A train load of fifteen cars of oranges from California will reach here about midnight and will be sent east without delay via the Texas and Pacific. It is not anticipated that the industrial army people will attempt to ride on top of these fruit cars as it would be very cold and uncomfortable going over the mountains east of here. The Texas and Pacific will probably run no other freight train out of here until the "soldiers" move.

TRAMPS ARRESTED.

El Paso, Tex., March 23—The city was thrown into a state of excitement to-night at 10 o'clock when Superintendent W. L. Martin of the Southern Pacific railway got up in the city democratic convention which was in session and stated that he was just informed that a regiment of the industrial army had taken possession of the company's shops and roundhouse and were scattering throughout the northern part of the city. Investigation revealed the fact that the regiment was quietly in camp and was being guarded by its own sentries. The trouble was caused by eight tramps who had been fired from the regimental camp and they had gone into the roundhouse for shelter from the cold wind. The tramps were placed under arrest.

RAILROAD OFFICIALS POWER LESS.

Houston, Tex., March 23.—General Superintendent Van Vleck and other Southern Pacific officials said to-day that they could do nothing but let the army of tramps go ahead The governor had been applied to by the people at El Paso and had declined to interfere, hence the road could do nothing that he knew of. It is understood that this road an some of the trainmasters of the International and Great Northern have given orders to let the tramps proceed with their rat killing.

LETTER FROM GENERAL FRYE.

San Antonio, Tex., March 23—Charles Meiron, chairman of the populist county executive committee, received a letter to-day from Gen. Frye, the commander of the industrial army of 700 men now on their way from El Paso to San Antonio. Frye says that he will be in this city in a day or two to make arrangements to feed his men here. He says their intention is to push through as fast as possible toward Washington.

ARMY OFFICIAL ROUTE

Inquiry at the Texas and Pacific general offices yesterday elicited the information that the Texas and Pacific does not apprehend any request on the part of the commonweal army for transportation over the Texas and Pacific, as the officials of that line understand that Gen. Frye and his followers, before leaving Los Angeles, selected the Southern Pacific as the official route for the army.

Massillon, O., March 23.—Lieut. Browne says that Texas men, Kansas men, Ohio men and men from the south write asking permission to join the army or contribute supplies. To every one of them Coxey sends an earnest invitation. One man in Canton, O., named Alexander, offers to attend the army as a piccolo player and agrees to tender his services for his board. Charles Jenkins of Rhodes, O., wants to bring a supply of potatoes, cornmeal and milk. V. Davis of Canton says he is an old soldier and he will follow the army if Gen Coxey will support his wife when he is gone. H. G Evans of Homestead says he has a "Coxey march" written. He calls it a "bute" and says he will give it to the commonweal on condition that the expenses of publication are paid.

Waldorf Astor Evans of Hazelton, Pa, says he is ready to join the army with 300 men "We want unlimited green backs," he says. Gen. Frye of California is coming—at least Carl Browne says so. He knows telepathy.

"Undoubtedly Frye will come by the brakebeam route," says Browne, "but he'll come."

Lieut. Browne has another kink. He says that the eventual outcome of the march to Washington will be a national establishment of a co-operative community on the Bellamy system. He intimates that this idea has been in his head all along and he regards it as an evidence of the second coming of Christ.

"We shall lay seige to the capitol," he said, until the two Coxey bills are passed. The wheels of government will stop until this is done We will make them stop. After we have accomplished our purpose perhaps we will take up our march to the south, but I will tell you no more now."

William H. and John L Gray of Bradford, Pa., write that they expect to enroll 500 and that "the expense of the contingent will be met entirely by myself and brother." The eldest brother says: "I will bring two horses, 10,000 loaves of rye bread and 200 bushels of white beans. Should there be any danger of your enterprise failing from a financial point of view my brother and mys if will furnish the entire funds required."

H. K. Farran of Jackson, Mich, writes that he will leave this city on the railroad with 219 men and join the commonweal on the march. Jerome Watson Beebe of Michigan City, Ind, writes that he could easily get 10,000 men to accompany the army, but they all show lack of ready money, "owing to the hard times and the Hawaiian controversy."

CAN'T GET NEAR CONGRESS.

Washington, March 23—There is one circumstance which may interfere with the main feature of Gen. Coxey's army's announced programme at Washington. It has been stated that the object of his bringing his army is to assemble it on the steps of the capitol on the 1st of may for the purpose of impressing its views upon congress. To do this it will be necessary to first secure authority from congress, as there are specific acts upon the statute books forbidding the assembling of crowds in the capitol grounds for the holding of any sort of public meeting except the sessions of congress and the assemblages which are incident to the inauguration of a president. These laws go to the extent of forbidding organized parades through the capitol grounds. The law is also very strict in regard to the invasion of the grounds and when the societies are given permission to march through them they are required to keep strictly upon the walks and driveways. Only on the occasion of inaugurations are people permitted to over-run the grounds. There is no place near the capitol available for Mr. Coxey's purpose, and if he should be refused permission for the assemblage of his followers on the capitol steps, which permission can be granted only by a special act of congress, the proceedings probably would not make so great an impression upon congress as they are intended to do.

That the necessary consent for the use of the capitol grounds could be obtained for this purpose is considered extremely doubtful. Congress has always shown itself very jealous of the general use of the capitol building and grounds and a departure in favor of Coxey's brigade is most unlikely. The commissioners of the District of Columbia have not considered as a board the impending invasion of Coxey's army. Commissioner Ross was asked what the plan of reception would be. He is not inclined to look upon the matter seriously and said: "It is hard to believe that sensible people will enter into such a move. If it is a body that threatens peace it is to be supposed that the governors of the states will arrest its progress. We will probably not take any action until we hear that the body has started. When we hear that it has actually started and is moving on Washington instructions will be given to the public to properly deal with them."

SAMPLE CONTRIBUTIONS

MASSILION, O., March 24—J S. Coxey recieved to-day in cash and checks the sum of $1411 to be devoted to furthering the commonweal.

Robert C. Gwins of Chicago writes: "For several weeks I have been giving your march much thought; have also interested others. As a result we have decided to contribute $1000, to be used as you may see fit. If you need any or all of this sum at once please wire me, care of Robert C. Gwins & Co. Yours for the cause of the oppressed,

"ROBERT C. GWINS."

Here is a letter from Michigan City, Ind.: "Please find enclosed check for $300 and draw on me for $55 per week till you secure the ear of congress in the people's cause. Also permit me to add that all the hay on my Kankakee meadows is at your disposal if needed while en route.

"T SIMPSON SLOANE."

Here is another important missive. "To Gen. J. S. Coxey: Hail to the chief. Am entirely in sympathy with your grand movement. A century from now your name will be more revered than that of George Washington. On to the capital and give the plutocrats hell. Inclosed find check for $100 to aid the great cause of the people against the aristocracy. Down with the senate.

Yours in admiration,
GEO. B. COX.

SAN ANTONIO PARTY PASS THROUGH TAYLOR.

TAYLOR, Tex, March 23.—A detachment of "the army of the unemployed," eighty-one strong, passed through Taylor at an early hour this morning enroute via the International & Great Northern fast freight from San Antonio to St. Louis to join Coxey's march to Washington city. They were comfortably ensconced in empty box cars and in charge of a leader or captain. Many of them were well dressed and showed other signs of good breeding, not usually found in the average tramps. They go via Palestine to Texarkana.

How He Chose a Clerk.

A lawyer advertised for a clerk. The next morning the office was crowded with applicants—all bright and many suitable. He bade them wait until all should arrive, and then arranged them all in a row and said he would tell them a story, note their comments and judge from that whom he would choose.

"A certain farmer," began the lawyer, "was troubled with a red squirrel that got in through a hole in his barn and stole his seed corn. He resolved to kill the squirrel at the first opportunity. Seeing him go in at the hole one noon, he took his shotgun and fired away. The first shot set the barn on fire."

"Did the barn burn?" said one of the boys.

The lawyer, without answer, continued; and seeing the barn on fire, the farmer siezed a pail of water and ran to put it out."

"Did he put it out?" said another.

"As he passed inside the door shut to, and the barn was soon in flames, when the hired girl rushed out with more water—"

"Did they all burn up?" said another boy.

The lawyer went on without answering, "Then the old lady came out, and all was noise and everybody was trying to put out the fire."

"Did any one burn up?" said another.

The lawyer said: "There, that will do, you have all shown great interest in the story."

But, observing one little bright-eyed fellow in deep silence, he said: "Now my little man, what have you to say?"

The little fellow blushed, grew uneasy, and stammered out: "I want to know what became of that squirrel; that's what I want to know?"

"You'll do," said the lawyer; "you are my man; you have not been switched off by confusion, barn burning, hired girls and water pails. You have kept your eye on the squirrel."

A YOUNG GIRL'S FORTUNE.

AN INTERESTING SKETCH.

Nothing appeals so strongly to a mother's affection as her daughter just budding into womanhood. Following is an instance: "Our daughter, Blanche, now 15 years of age, had been terribly afflicted with nervousness, and had lost the entire use of her right arm. She was in such a condition that we had to keep her from school and abandon her music lessons. In fact, we feared St. Vitus dance, and are positive but for an invaluable remedy she would have had that terrible affliction. We had employed physicians, but she received no benefit from them. The first of last August she weighed but 75 pounds, and although she has taken only three bottles of Nervine she now weighs 106 pounds; her nervousness and symptoms of St. Vitus dance are entirely gone, she attends school regularly, and studies with comfort and ease. She has recovered complete use of her arm, her appetite is splendid, and no money could procure for our daughter the health Dr. Miles' Nervine has brought her.

When my brother recommended the remedy I had no faith in patent medicines and would not listen to him, but as a last resort he sent us a bottle, we began giving it to Blanche, and the effect was almost immediate."—Mrs. R. R. Bullock, Brighton, N. Y.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine is sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent direct by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles for $5, express prepaid. It is positively free from opiates or dangerous drugs.

WHEN A MAN IS IN LOVE

When a man is in love the world is all light,
But when he gets left it is turned into night.

When a man is in love, as a general rule,
He makes of himself a dod-gasted fool,

When a man is in love he is easily gulled,
And it's sinful the way that he gets his leg pulled.

When a man is in love, he thinks he's a daisy,
But the rest of the world imagines he's crazy.

AFTER four years struggle Hogg turns his back on the people and turns the democratic party of Texas over to railroad corporations.

WHY is it that the late harmony meeting in Dallas endorsed "our democratic president" and failed to say a word about "our democratic gover nor?"

THE Southern Pacific road is being severely criticised for hauling Gen. Fry's army of tramps to the desert waste around Findley, Texas, and then refusing to haul them further.

FOR the next democratic platform we suggest the following: "We endorse any thing for the good of the party. Any member is requested to construe this to suit the occasion and lo cality."

WALL STREET wants Cleveland to veto the Bland seigniorage bill. The agricultural classes of the nation want it to become a law. Who will Cleveland stand by?—McKinney Gazette.

Why, Wall Street of course, just as he has always stood. Gaze once more at your harmony resolution which says: "We stand as a unit ready to second the exertions of our DEMOCRATIC PRESIDENT.

CLINT WANTS THE PIE.

HARMONY is a good thing in its place. It is right in the democratic party. Brethren should dwell together in peace. But don't get so mucnly harmonized as to want to elevate to office the men who have shown themselves to be wolves in sheeps clothing in the last campaign. That was a good time to find men out. Men who had been honored by the people time and a ai proved themselves ca, able of stooping to little contemp ible tricks to defeat the will of hese same friends in order to carry out their own selfish de igns. The sea gives up its dead. The political sea in 1892 heaved up a whole raft of dead ducks, and it is well for every honest man to spot these fellows now. They will be running for office before the roses come again.—McKinney Gazette.

Hood's Has Merit

Mrs. A. S. Bowen
Cline, Arkansas.

"I read that one bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla would convince me of its merits, and I have found this statement to be strictly true.

"Some two years ago two ulcers appeared on my lip, which, after being sore a long time, broke and discharged. I also was attacked with sciatic rheumatism, my leg being drawn so that I could hardly get around the house. I hardly knew what a good night's rest was. The hip trouble caused me great trouble and annoyance, and eczema appeared on my hands. Naturally I began to run down, was weak and low spirited. The physician told me my hip would have to be operated upon before I would get any better. At last I decided to take one bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla. In three weeks my rheumatism entirely disappeared and I found that

I Was on the Gain.

This was very encouraging, and I found that I could sleep well at night. My health steadily improved, and, of course, I continued taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. My hip has been restored to good condition, the sores have stopped discharging and healed up. I am able for the first time in three years to do my own housework, and can walk two miles without trouble. I have no symptoms of rheumatism; that tired feeling has entirely left me. My neighbors say I look

Better Than For Many Years.

I do earnestly recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla to all sufferers, especially those afflicted with impure blood." MRS. A. S. BOWEN, Cline, Ark.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures

Hood's Pills cure liver ills, constipation, biliousness, jaundice, sick headache, indigestion.

CLEVELAND ENDORSED.

The Clark and Hogg leaders have "harmonized" by Hogg and his lieutenants swallowing a good sized dish of crow in the way of endorsing Cleveland's administration. The clause in the resolutions is now being construed two ways in order to mislead the voting masses. The Clark fellows are in high glee over the fact that they have forced the Hogg fellows to endorse the Cleveland administration, while the Hogg advocates claim that the resolution is not an endorsement.

Even our esteemed contemporary, the McKinney Gazette, whose editor is muscular and who has drank freely at the fountain of democracy(?) during his long, eventful career, makes the following startling an nouncement:

Matlock says he is satisfied—that he got an absolute en dorsement of Cleveland's ad ministration." We ask the readers of the Gazette to ex amine carefully the resolutions adopted. Is there anything in those resolutions looking to an absolute endorsement of Cleve land or anybody else. Certainly not. Matlock was just talk ing through his hat like he has been for the past two or three years.

All right Bro. Clint, read the following:

1. We reiterate our indorsement of the national platform adopted at Chicago in 1892 as a true expression of democratic faith and stand as a unit ready to second the exertions of our democratic president and congress in the execution of the demands of said platform.

You know full well that you have denounced Cleveland as being undemocratic and hundreds of free silver democrats (Hogg men) in this county have declared in most emphatic terms that Cleveland is not a democrat and yet your HARMONY resolution refers to Cleveland as "our democratic president."

For the sake of official pie this hypocrisy is being endors ed and voters are asked to sup port the gang.

Leaves the Party!

Hon. Geo. W. Logan

Follows in the Wake of Prof. Buck.—Reasons Given.

AN EX-DEMOCRATIC CHAIRMAN.

TAYLOR, Tex., March 26—Hon George W. Logan, ex chairman of the democratic executive committee of Williamson county, having declared his intention of abandoning the old democratic ship and climb aboard the populist tug in the coming political voyage, was interviewed by a News re porter with a view to obtaining his reasons therefor. When asked by your reporter as to whether or not he would join the populists and stump the county for the peoples party ticket in the approaching cam paign, as stated in a local pa per, Mr. Logan replied:

"This I may do, but I only said as much inferentially."

"Why then did you leave the party with which you have so long been so closely identified?" asked the reporter.

"Because," repled Mr. Logan, "the skeleton of the Wil son tariff bill is a sad com mentary upon the boasted dem ocratic pledge of tariff reform I say the sale of United States bonds in times of profound peace, as advised by the pres ent administration, and the cr a ion of four hundred new federal offices at $1200 each per annum with the present fi nancial depression confronting congress, and other profligate bills of appropriation, are not in harmony with national and state democratic platforms on principles pledging the party to retrench the public expendi tures.

"I also state," continued Mr. Logan, "that paternal inter cession of the government in paying officers after the expir ation of their terms of offices is at war with democratic principles. For these and other reasons I must seek for the true principles of democracy, as I understand them, elsewhere. These principles of true democracy are not to be found in the acts of the present admin istration."

Mr. Logan still claims to be a democrat, but one of Jeffersonian principles.

DEMOCRATIC HARMONY.

Among the endless hypocritical forces that has ever distinguished the Texas so-called democracy probably none were more ludicrous than the late harmony meeting at Dallas.

For several years this office hunting mob has been warring among themselves. Such has been the abuse of each faction by the other that if one tithe of their accusations were true they all should ever be frowned from the midst of decent people.

These erratic fragments of the effete so-called democracy are dissimilar in every quality except a morbid appetite for the spoils of office.

Notwithstanding the deadly hatred of each other they were ready at any moment to suspend hostilities at the slightest appearance of danger of losing their official grasp on a misgoverned people.

Like in all cases where rogues fall out, the people were beginning to hope that they might escape and gain their rights, and so soon as the warring tentacles of this great political octopus discovered this hope of escape each ele ment of this hungry, desperate crew straightened themselves out in perfect harmony, ready to pursue their usual victim in order to secure political spoils.

This meeting had the usual amount of bombastic brag, idiotic assertion and violent in sult to all opposition.

The finest exhibition of frenzied madness can always be guaranteed by calling the professional place hunter to the line of dispassionate thought and consistent reason.

The conference committee on harmony was in session four hours, continuously, except while out taking drinks, and after complimenting the fideli ty and statesmanship of Grover Cleveland, they stumbled on one truth, which is, "we all unite without the sacrifice of any principle."

Of course everybody knows this crowd is encumbered with no principle except a love of office.

In the approaching great democratic battle, George Clark promised to lead every man who voted for him and in the next breath he attempted to slap the republicans in the face by saying we must not permit Texas to be disgraced by a republican congressman—as if Texas could be disgraced by anything after such representation as we have had there.

Gov. Hogg was present with his usual prompt and ponderosity, declaring that he would vote for the "nominee" no matter who nor what the platform.

In his imperial august style he avowed that no populist should be permitted to hold office in Texas.

In all this disgusting hubbub and selfish hurrah there was not one word of sympathy for suffering humanity—for languishing labor nor a thought of condemnation of governmental extravagance, monopolistic rascality, blighting contraction, and the many other acts of blackest treason that ever disgraced any nation.

It remains to be seen whether this crowd can continue to hoodwink and lead a credulous public as they have done for a generation.

THE reunion of the United confederate veterans will take place at Birmingham, Ala., on April 25 and 26. McKINNEY, Tex., March 26, '94
Editor Democrat.

The 1000 starving men now passing through the state en route to Washington are ere ating a great deal of talk They beg for work in vain. If they do not get to the capitol what is to be done with them? If they succeed in getting to their destination what is to be done? Already thousands are living on half rations in Texas and begging for work at half price. In 1875, as a candidate to represent the people in the constitutional convention, I stood alone in denouncing the bureau of immigration for which the people were taxed to import paupers into Texas. If demanded, I can produce my printed platform used at that time. In 1876 I was defeated for the senate on that principle.

When I gave a warning of starving millions of the old states I was answered, "let them come to Texas." They are here. Shall we keep them or let them march on to Washington? If they cant get out of our state will they be killed or fed? The members of the two old parties must hear from Sherman or Cleveland before they can speak out. As I have no master I will give my opinion as follows:

1. Decrease our representatives in both houses two thirds.
2. Decrease their salaries in conformity to the good old days gone by.
3. Dismiss the extra clerks recently added
4. Appropriate this money saved to internal improvements.

Let Mr. Bailey write his own campaign letters.

During the hundred and six years past a letter clerk was not thought of until cheap Bailey got to congress.

Economize the same in your state, county and corporations. Give this money saved to the hungry creatures who hunt for work in vain. If this is not done I am in favor of taxing the people to feed these poor creatures until the government issues a sufficient amount of currency to enable business to be restored.

Without a radical change I fear there is to be a fearful struggle in our beloved land.

To the unfortunate I would advise; keep cool and don't commit robbery unless you are driven to it by starvation, in case of which you will have the sympathy of the large majority of your fellow men.

On March 20, 1894 the death angel visited the home of Alex Neely, and when he left he too kwith him Mrs. Mary Lavi na Neely, wife of Mr. Neely.

Mrs. Neely was born in Col lin county, Texas, Sept. 16, 18 56. She professed religion at Walnut Grove, Aug. 1874 and joined the C P. church at that place. She was a faithful wife, a loving mother and a devoted christian. She leaves her husband and six children to mourn her loss, besides a large number of relatives and friends. A large concourse of people followed her remains to the beautiful cemetery, locally known as the Horn cemetery, where they were deposited in the grave. The funeral services were conducted by the writer, assisted by Rev. R C. Horn. When Mr. Neely returned home he found the little three-days old infant dead; it was buried by the side of its mother the 22nd. The family have the sympathy of a large circle of friends in their double bereavement. R C. GRACE.

They Are Coming.

Any one who enjoys a hearty laugh and an evening of rollicking fun should not miss the opportunity of seeing John C. Stewart's Two Johns Comedy Co, at the Opera House, Saturday March 31. The comedy itself is too well known to need extended introduction to theatre-goers. Suffice it to say that it is a sure cure for blues of no matter how long standing. The Two John's are just as fat as ever and their adventures on account of striking personal resemblance are funnier if possible than in previous years.

A splendid company of talented players will support the principal comedians and new specialties are introduced

Songs, dances, musical melodys, both instrumental and vocal help to make up the entertainment and a strictly World's Fair edition of the Two Johns may be expected.

Miss Frances Grey, who has made such a distinguished hit in the east as a rival of Lois Fuller will introduce her wonderfully sensational whirlwind dance during the second act. This in itself is well worth seeing.

Members of the populist party in the county who are able should prove their patriotism by subscribing liberally to a legitimate campaign fund. They should not expect candidates who are poor to spend their entire time and money in fighting the battles of the people alone, while they sit idly by refusing aid from their wealth. The old parties spend millions to corrupt. The reformers should spend small amounts to expose corruptions in politcs.

Three days is a very short time in which to cure a bad case of rheumatism but it can be done, if the proper treatment is adopted, as will be seen by the following from James Lambert, of New Brunswick, Ills.: "I was badly afflicted with rheumatism in the hips and legs, when I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It cured me in three days. I am all right to-day and would insist on every one who is afflicted with that terrible disease to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm and get well at once." 50 cent bottles for sale by R. E. Bristol.

Precinct Populist Call.

NEVADA, Tex., March 22 '94.

By virtue of the authority vested in me by the executive committee of the peoples party of Collin county and in accordance with the wish and instructions of our state executive committee and many leaders of the people's cause, then present; I hereby call a precinct convention to be held in the town of Nevada on the 25th day of April next, for the purpose selecting delegates to the county convention which is to be held in McKinney on May 5, and to transact such other business as may come before it. Every peoples party man, every one who has lost faith in the old parties, in fact every one who believes in the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man, come out and be with us. The time has surely come in the history of our government when all good liberty loving people of every name and order must unite and make a gigantic effort to wrest this government from the hands of plutocracy and restore it to those who live by honest work either by brawn or brain. Remembering that eternal vigilence is the price of liberty and that those who would be free must strike the blow.

J. W. YOUNGER,
Chairman 7th Precinct.

A democrat, of McKinney, said to a democrat reporter that he did not know where he was at. He said that fear of the populists and the love of office were the incentives that brought about the late harmony meeting The leaders of each faction having beforehand arranged the slates for the division of the spoils, had agreed upon the meeting in hopes of hoodwinking the people. Speaking for himself, he believed it would have the opposite effect by opening the eyes of the people to the corruption of the whole scheme, which he considered the most disgraceful thing in the history of the state. He also expressed the belief that it would be a failure in holding the leaders together and looked for a big row in the convention. As for himself and several others he could name, he was done with the whole crowd

Harmony Notes and Comments.

Incidents and comments on the harmony meeting, crowded out last week.

CLARK AND HOGG MEET.

Yesterday morning a messenger from Gov. Hogg arrived at the Windsor and asked Judge Clark if he would meet the governor at H. C. Coke's law office and to name any hour which suited his convenience, Judge Clark replied that he would meet Gov. Hogg at 1 o'clock.

Promptly to the minute both of the distinguished gentlemen were at the appointed place. They shook hands cordially and retired to a private room to talk matters over.

Gov. Hogg said it had been reported that he was here seeking an indorsement of his administration. That was not the case. He did not care wheth or not his administration was indorsed by either or both committees, but, added the governor, if the administration of Mr. Cleveland is indorsed he would exact it also.

Judge Clark informed the governor that the Clark people did not vote for the Hogg ticket and were, therefore, not the sponsors of the Hogg administration and could not be expected to indore it. The Hogg admistration. Judge Clark informed the governor, was what caused the division in the democratic party at Houston and the Hogg administration was responsible for the present condition of affairs in Texas Judge Clark then asked the governor if the Hogg men did not vote for Mr. Cleveland, and in common with democrats all over the union were not responsible for the Cleveland administration. Judge Clark asked Hogg if he was not a Cleveland man.

The governor replied that his following did support Cleveland because they were democrats and always snpported the ticket, but denied that they were responsible for the errors of Cleveland. He said that no democrat was bound to stand by a man when he had left the platform upon which he had been nominated and elected. Speaking for himself the governor said he was as great a friend of the president as was Judge Clark.

Judge Clark replied that if the governor was such a strong Cleveland man he ought not to object to an indorsement of his friend. Judge Clark said it was the duty of every democrat to stand up for a national administration placed in power by democratic votes and no democrat when a democratic administration was attacked ought to withhold his support.

Gov. Hogg said his people were willing to stand up for Mr. Cleveland in so far as they thought him right, but further than that they would not go.

Without getting any nearer to an agreement than that the two gentlemen seperated.

* * * * * * * * *

NO PLEDGES GIVEN.

In Gov. Hogg's speech Monday night occurred this sentence:

"Those who differ from us are pledged not to propose to repeal or amend one of these laws," referring to the measures put on the statute books during his administration.

In this connection Hon. A. L. Matlock said yesterday: "I have been instructed by my committee to say that no such pledge was asked or given so far as anybody authorized to speak for our people is concerned. The question was never mentioned either in committee or out of it to any member of the Baker committee The first any of us ever heard of such an agreement was when Gov. Hogg made his talk last night. We are at a loss to understand upon what authority the statement could have been made."

Chairman Waller S. Baker was seen at his room, and after the quotation had been read to him he said: "The resolutions themselves, which relegate all state issues to the state convention, show very plainly that no such pledge was ever made or desired. We refrained from discussing state politics in the session of the conference committees because it was dangerous. I am satisfied Gov. Hogg did not intend his remarks in the way they have been construed, because he was acquainted with the facts."

JUDGE CLARK'S REASON.

That portion of Judge Clark's speech Monday night referring to Gov Hogg has created a deal of stir around the hotel corridors. Judge Clark was asked yesterday if the quotation was correct, as some of his friends seemed to doubt it. He replied: "Yes, I believe I said it and had a right to say it.

There is a great natural law that forces man to be proud of his own work. I took my friend, the governor, in hand two or three years ago and determined that I would make him a good democrat regardless of his own inclination. This has been accomplished now and I claim the right to be proud of my own progeny."

POPULISTS NOT DISCOURAGED.

At the populist headquarters yesterday when a News reporter dropped in to see if the pulse of the brethren was still normal they were all sawing wood and sending out statistics for the instruction of the inhabitants of counties in the far west.

"Harmony don't scare us," said Mr Milton Park "We are more than a 100,000 votes better off. We will get 65.000 republicans and 40,000 Hogg men who believe in our platform and have belonged to us all the time. Put the populist vote in Texas down at 250 000 votes. It won't miss it 25,000. Those fellows who brag about a united democracy being invincible won't be as handsome next November as they are now, but they will know a heap more. And if it is comforting tell them we are going to have five or six congressmen from Texas this year. Just wait till you see the boys in the brush get started if you want to see votes."

REAGAN'S POSITION.

Hon. John H. Reagan addressed the conference committees yesterday. When he came out of the room the air was vivid, so to speak, with comments on his speech. The report was already current that he was the most radical of the Hogg element. His speech was a confirmation. His view was that the national administration should not be indorsed on all counts. A News reporter asked how he would declare his position, then, toward his party. The reporter added that the logic of the gentleman's remarks was that the next democratic state convention could not adopt the usual resolutions commendatory of the national administration. Judge Reagan replied that in so far as the national administration was right it could be indorsed. "We would not abandon principles; we would indorse these, but not the man," he said.

JUDGE NUGENT PLEASED.

Cleburne, Tex., March 20.—Judge Nugent of Fort Worth was in the city attending court A News reporter saw him at the Hotel Hamilton and asked what in his opinion would be the result of the meeting. In reply he said it would lose the party many votes: that in his opinion it was a Clark victory, and he believed that many Hogg men would leave the party on account of it.

Mr. Baillio, who was present, replied that the Clark people did not so construe it, as they had made concessions in disbanding their committee, etc.; that neither Clark nor Hogg men tried to get any advantage, and that he, as a Hogg man, felt satisfied.

In reply Judge Nugent referred to the clause indorsing the president and congress in their efforts to carry out the national platform, and said he construed it to mean that they indorsed the acts of Cleveland and of congress. He said the national platform denounced the protection idea as unconstitutional; that he [Nugent] indorsed that and believed it unconstitutional; in fact, he was an out and out free trader. Instead of carrying out their platform the democrats had passed the Wilson bill, which was a protection bil out of whole cloth.

"It is just such hypocracy as this," said the judge, "which ran me out of the democratic party. I never, even up to this date, voted anything but a straight democratic ticket in my life, except once in a municipal election in El Paso. I was in Dallas in 1892 on election day and did not get home in time to vote. So, you see, I did not have a chance to scratch the ticket then. Of course I would have voted the populist ticket had I been at home."

The judge thinks numbers of the free silver democrats will come over to the populists.

Where he Drew the Line.

Colonel William D. Olin, the secretary of the commonwealth, distinguished himself the other evening at the dinner of the New England club of the Delta Upsilon, by telling half a dozen really excellent stories. The one I most distinctly remember has never appeared in print, so far as I know.

Mr Olin was speaking of the ease with which the soldiers of the great armies of both the north and south returned to their homes to take up again their regular pursuits after the war was over.

"One summer," he said, "a few years after the war, Colonel Higginson was traveling in the south, and got to talking with a farmer in some little town who was employing a considerable number of men at his haying The farmer told Colonel Higginson that most of them were old confederate soldiers.

"'You see over there, where those four men are working?' asked he. 'Well, one of 'em was a private, one of 'em a corporal, one was a major, and that man 'way over in the corner was a colonel.'

"'Are they good men?' asked Colonel Higginson.

"'Well,' said the farmer, 'that private's a first class man, and the corporal's pretty good too.'

"'But how about the major and the colonel?'

"'The major's so so,' said the farmer.

"'But the colonel?'

"'Well, I don't want to say nothin' against any man who was a colonel in the war,' said the farmer, 'but I've made up my mind that I won't hire no brigadier generals.'"—Boston Herald.

MARCH, APRIL AND MAY

Is the Season for Catarrhal Dyspepsia—The Blood Must be Cleansed.

The symptoms of catarrhal dyspepsia are: Coated tongue, pain or heavy feeling in the stomach, sour stomach, belching of gas, dizzy head, sometimes headache, despondent feelings, loss of appetite, palpitation of heart and irregularity of the bowels.

For this condition Pe-ru-na is found to be an admirable remedy. In all cases it brings prompt relief to the painful symptoms, and in a large per cent. of cases it makes a permanent cure. Pe-ru-na soothes the inflamed mucous surface, and thus strikes at the root of the disease. In case where the inflammation has been so severe and continued as to produce extreme irritability of the stomach the remedy may be taken in small doses at first, diluted in water; but, as soon as the improvement is sufficient to permit a full dose to be taken undiluted, it is a better way, and the cure is much more rapid Pe-ru-na is also a spring medicine which at once removes the cause of all affections peculiar to the spring season by purifying the blood of all contaminations and invigorating the whole system

Two valuable books—Family Physician No. 2. setting forth in detail the treatment of catarrh, coughs, colds, sore throat, bronchitis, and consumption, in every phase of the disease, and Family Physician No. 3, on spring remedies and diseases—will be sent free to any address by The Pe-ru-na Drug Manufacturing Company of Columbus, Ohio.

Viney Grove No. 2.

Editor Democrat.

Dear Sir:—We feel that we are thankful that we can have hog and hominy as well as hades, in spite of his mightiness, G C., and the anarchists at Washington City. We people don't know where we are at because they can't get a quorum only at the beer garden, but howsomever, we are awful glad that Brother Bland succeeded in resurrecting the silver bill. I told the boys that the democrats only wanted a chance, in order to redeem their pledges. If I am not mistaken there will soon be enough of the dollars of our daddies to knock the horns off the golden calf with.

But, now I am going to say something I don't want you to print too loud; that is the gold bugs has gotten most of the silver certificates you know and they might turn them over for silver dollars as fast as they are coined, and then the boys would not get many of the dollars to throw at the calf with, and then the populists would begin to sling mud right in the face of the grand old democratic party again.

We are going to the alliance to-morrow and they want me to make a speech, bus lord, I don't know what to say, for han't we got all we want now or—or pretty much the same you know, plenty of hades and some hog and hominy.

J TUCKER.

CHICAGO, ROCK ISLAND AND TEXAS RAILROAD.

"Great Rock Island Route."

Is pleased with Texas and Texas people and hopes the feeling is reciprocal. Business with the new line since its opening has been satisfactory and we will continue to furnish the very best of service to Colorado, Indian Territory, Oklahoma, Kansas, Nebraska, and all points east of the Missouri river.

After all, the comfort of a railroad journey is made up of little things.

The track is smooth and the Pullman sleepers and free reclining chair cars are first class and "up to date." In addition to the above, which are, of course, absolute necessities, the cars are lighted with gas and heated by steam from the engine. There is plenty of ice water in the tanks and a supply of clean towels in the toilet rooms. On top of it all, we have a lot of courteous employes who do not take it as an insult to be asked a civil question. As we say, these are some of the little things sometimes neglected as may have been your experience. We hope not, however, on the great "Rock Island Route."

We are also anxious to please at headquarters. If you are in need of information and cannot procure it readily of your nearest local agent, drop a line to the undersigned and we will do our best to answer it promptly.

PROSPECTUS

Of J. H. Davis' ("Cyclone") Great Book,

"A POLITICAL REVELATION."

This book is just what its title signifies. It treats of the rise and formation of our government, its constitution and policy, showing that the intention of the founders of our government was to inaugurate just such a system as is provided in the populist platform. It shows that corporations are the royal family of the United States, with more power to absorb the wealth of the people than English royalty. The author not only harmonizes the populist platform with the constitution, but he clearly proves that the populists hold the only constitutional theory on money, land and highways. It is a legal and historical review of the principles found in the populist platform, founding every principle on Blackstone and the common law of England, and supporting them by Jefferson, Madison, Clay, and the debates of scores of the framers of our constitution, while the constitution was being formed.

Mr. Davis shows clearly that the populists are the followers of Jefferson and Madison, and that their opponents are the followers of Hamilton and Morris. The volume contains more than a hundred pages of quotations from Jefferson, Madison, Clay, Randolph, Mason and others, proving our position to be strictly in conformity to the constitution.

It arms every man with facts of law and history by which he may overthrow every opponent, and disarm every lawyer who opposes us.

The subjects are treated in that legal, logical and convincing style peculiar to Mr. Davis alone. It will be a text book and standard work as long as the love of liberty exists in the human heart. The line of demarkation between aristocracy and democracy in government is completely drawn. Its principles are fundamental and eternal.

Every patriot should have a copy. Sent in clubs of five or more for $1.25 each. Single copy $1.35. Address all orders to
